

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

CAMBRIDGE ASYLUM FOR SOLDIERS' WIDOWS,

KINGSTON-ON-THAMES.

Established 1851. Supported by Voluntary Contributions.

Patrons.—Her Most Gracious Majesty the QUEEN and the other Members of the Royal Family.

Lady President.—Her Royal Highness the Duchess of Cambridge.

Chairman of Committee.—Lieut. Gen. the Hon. Sir Edward Cust, K.C.H.

Deputy Chairman.—Col. the Hon. Augustus Liddell.

Hon. Sec.—E. F. Leeks, Esq., F.L.S.

THIS institution, originated in memory of his Royal Highness the late Duke of Cambridge, was established for providing an asylum, with allowances, for the widows of non-commissioned officers and privates of Her Majesty's Land Forces, married in accordance with the rules of the service.

Widows are generally eligible for admission at the age of fifty; but those whose husbands have died on service in time of war, from wounds received in action, or from disease contracted thereby, may be admitted as candidates under that age.

It is a fundamental rule that not more than one widow from each regiment, or battalion, be an inmate of the asylum at the same period, except under extraordinary circumstances; to be approved by the Committee.

There are at present 48 widows in the asylum, but the Committee are anxious to increase the number and to complete the building. The asylum, when finished, will accommodate 160 widows, or one at least from each regiment and battalion in Her Majesty's service.

The Committee are desirous, therefore, of urging the claims of this the first and only existing Asylum for Soldiers' Widows, affording them not temporary relief alone, but a permanent home and support, and tending to improve the general character of soldiers' wives; and they earnestly solicit the assistance and liberality of the public at large in enabling them to carry out this national work.

Every subscriber is entitled to one vote at each election for every five guineas life subscription, and two votes for every guinea annual subscription or donation. Executors of benefactors by will become entitled to vote according to the bequest.

Cheques to be crossed "Coutts & Co." Post Office Orders to be made payable to "J. S. FARRELL."

Subscriptions and donations (to be advertised) may be paid to the Committee; E. F. Leeks, Esq., Hon. Sec.; Messrs. Coutts & Co., Strand; Messrs. Shrubsole & Co., Bank, Kingston; Mr. Charles Turner (Collector), 84, Park Street, Grosvenor Square; or to the Secretary, at the Office, from whom, also, may be obtained the Eleventh Annual Report, Forms of Application, &c.

CAUTION.

TO TRADESMEN, MERCHANTS, SHIPPERS, OUTFITTERS, &c.

WHEREAS it has lately come to my knowledge that some unprincipled person or persons have for some time past been imposing upon the public, by selling to the Trade and others a spurious Article, under the name of BOND'S PERMANENT MARKING INK; this is to give Notice that I am the original and sole Proprietor and Manufacturer of the said Article, and do not employ any traveller, or authorise any person to represent themselves as coming from my establishment for the purpose of selling the said Ink. This caution is published by me to prevent further imposition upon the public, and serious injury to myself.

E. R. BOND,

(Sole Executrix and Widow of the late JOHN BOND),

28, LONG LANE, WEST SMITHFIELD, LONDON.

•• To avoid disappointment from the substitution of counterfeits, be careful to ask for the genuine Bond's Permanent Marking Ink; and further to distinguish it, observe that No SIXPENTY SIZE is or has been prepared by him, the Inventor and Proprietor.

Twinberrow's Dandelion, Camomile, and Rhubarb Pills.

As effectual cure for Indigestion, all Stomach Complaints, and Liver Affections. In cases of Constipation these Pills never fail in producing a healthy and permanent action of the Bowels, so that in a short time aperients will not be required, and, being quite as innocent as castor oil, may be given to children.

FROM SCOTT, THOMPSON, & CO., CHEMISTS, CALCUTTA.

"April 25, 1855.

"We have lately received several communications from our friends in this country favourable to the reputation of your Dandelion, Camomile, and Rhubarb Pills, and as we think they would find a ready sale, send to us twenty-four dozen boxes to begin with."

The extensive sale and universal approval of these Pills have been such as to induce several individuals to imitate them, against which the public are cautioned.

Twinberrow's Preparation of Myrrh.

Having been used extensively for more than twenty years, with most satisfactory results, he conceives it unnecessary to say more than that it is an effectual remedy; first, in all Diseases of the Gums, particularly Scurvy, those which recede from the Teeth, and are tender; second, for the preservation of the Teeth; third, for preventing Teeth which are decayed from becoming worse; fourth, for the prevention of Tooth-ache; fifth, for purifying the Breath, which may be affected by the state of the Stomach, or any other cause, imparting at the same time a most agreeable and refreshing effect.

Twinberrow's Camphorated Aromatic Spirit of Sal Volatile.

In all cases where Sal Volatile is given, it is universally acknowledged by the Medical Profession, that its effect is greatly increased if taken in Camphor Julep. The great advantage of this unique preparation is that, by adding it to water, Camphor Julep is simultaneously formed with the Sal Volatile in solution.

[Returned from France, January 1816.]

1 Lord Combermere accompanied his Regt. (the 6th Dr. Gds.) to Flanders in Aug. 1793, and served to the end of that campaign, and until June of the following one. In 1796 he embarked in command of the 25th Lt. Drs. for the Cape of Good Hope, and served a short but active campaign under Sir Thomas Craig, when he accompanied his Regt. to India, where he served in the memorable campaigns of 1798 and 99, against Tippoo Sultan, including the battle of Mallavelly, and siege of Seringapatam. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1806, in command of a brigade of cavalry, consisting of the 14th and 10th Lt. Drs., at the head of which he distinguished himself, during the campaign in the north of Portugal, including the operations at Oporto, and afterwards at the battle of Talavera. In Aug. 1809, the local rank of Lieut. Gen. was conferred upon him; and, early in 1810, he was appointed to the command of the whole allied cavalry under the Duke of Wellington, and remained in that command until the termination of the war in 1814, and distinguished himself at the head of the cavalry upon every occasion that presented itself, including the various actions in covering the retreat from Almeida to Torres Vedras, battle of Busaco, actions at Villa Garcia and Castrejon, battles of Fuentes d'Onor and Salamanca (severely wounded), action at El Bodon, battles of the Pyrenees, Orthes, and Toulouse. Served also at the siege and capture of Bhurtpore, in 1825 and 26, as Commander in Chief. His Lordship has received a Medal for Seringapatam; the Gold Cross and one Clasp for the battles of Talavera, Fuentes d'Onor, Salamanca, Orthes, and Toulouse; and the Silver War Medal with three Clasps for Busaco, Ciudad Rodrigo, and Pyrenees; he is a Grand Cross of the Tower and Sword of Portugal, and of Charles the Third, and St. Ferdinand of Spain.

His Majesty, through the Duke of Wellington, having conferred on him the rank of Colonel on a particular service, he sailed early in 1835 with a detachment of artillery, another of sappers, a proportion of seamen, and thirteen military and naval officers; with whose assistance Colonel Chesney accomplished the extraordinary achievement of transporting two iron steam vessels across Syria, and floating them in a perfect state on the Upper Euphrates, not very far from Aleppo. In the early part of the navigation thus commenced, a fearful hurricane carried the smaller vessel and twenty of her men to the bottom, Colonel Chesney and eight others being saved by swimming. The Commander, however, persevered; and in the remaining vessel he not only completed the surveys of the river Euphrates, Tigris, and Kareen, but continued the undertaking until it was turned over in the following year to the East India Company. 1 Sir John Burgoyne embarked in 1800 on the expedition to Egypt under Sir Ralph Abercromby, but was detached at Malta to be employed in blockade of La Valetta, and was present at its capture. Joined the army in Sicily in 1806, and embarked as Commanding Engineer with the expedition to Egypt under Major General Mackenzie Fraser, and served at the assault of the lines of Alexandria and siege of Rosetta. Was next employed as Commanding Engineer with Sir John Moore's expedition from Messina, and afterwards under the same General in Sweden in 1808. Sailed in the same year with the expedition to Portugal under Sir John Moore, and was present in the retreat to Corunna, in which he blew up the bridge at Benevente in presence of the enemy. 1 Sir De Lacy Evans served in India in 1807, 8, 9, and 10. Portugal, Spain, and France in 1812, 13, and 14. America, part of 1814-15. Belgium and France in 1815, 16, 17, and 18. In Spain in 1835, 36, and 37. Present during the operations against Ameir Khan and the Pindarries, capture of the Marathas, part of the retreat from Burgos, action on the Hormaza (wounded), battle of Vittoria, investment of Pampelona, battle of the Pyrenees, investment of Bayonne (horse shot), actions of Vic Bigorre and Tarbes battle of Toulouse (horse shot) battle of Bladensburg (two horses shot), capture of Washington, attack on Baltimore, operations before New Orleans (boarding and capture of American Flotilla),—action 25th Dec. wounded severely—unsuccesful assault, Jan. (wounded severely), battle of Quatre Bras, retreat of 17th of June, Waterloo (horse shot and one sabred), investment and capitulation of Paris. Continued on Staff of Allied Army of Occupation in France. Accepted under an allied Power (1835) command of an auxiliary British and Spanish corps of army by sanction and desire of the English Government, and by order of the King in Council. Acted, while so employed, in conjunction with the British forces (under Lord J. Hay), and through mediation of British authorities:—raising investments of San Sebastian and Bilbao, action of Artaban, capture of port and castle of Passages. Defeated the enemy in general actions on the 5th of May, 6th of June, 1st of October (wounded) 1836; also 10th and 15th of March 1837. Attacked near Hernani, 16th March, by the elite of the Carlist army, 16,000 strong (about double the allied force), and obliged to retreat about one mile, but with a less loss in killed and wounded (600) than that of the enemy. Resumed the offensive the following month—capture of Hernani by escalade, 14th May—of Oyarzun, 16th May—of Yrun, by storm 17th May—of Pontarabia by capitulation, 18th May. These, and other minor affairs, were for the most part, severely contested, and cost (including those of the enemy) above ten thousand killed and wounded. Excepting occasionally two or three stragglers, generally without arms, the Legion never lost (under his command) prisoners, artillery, or equipage, though utterly contrary statements repeatedly appeared at the time—while he took from the enemy 100 officers, 1000 men, thirty pieces of cannon, several entrenched positions, fortified towns and posts, with an extensive and most important strategical tract of the insurgent territory, including their main line of retreat, communication and supply. Thenceforth "The frontier was effectually closed against the entrance of resources to the Carlists, except by the small mountain passes, which are only accessible to foot passengers, or mules lightly laden"—(British Commissioners' Dispatch, Parliamentary Paper)—and thus did this auxiliary corps decisively contribute to the successful termination of the war. He holds the rank of Lieut. General in the national army of Spain, by licence of a British royal warrant; also, honoured by Her Majesty for these services with the Cross of Commander of the Bath, and by the government of Spain with the Grand Crosses of St. Ferdinand and Charles III. Was appointed Governor of the British portion of Sebastopol in Sept. 1855; in October named to the command of the 4th Division; in Nov. appointed Chief of the staff to the Army, and in January 1856 given the local rank of Lieut. 3 Colonel Deacon served in the Panjab campaign of 1848-9, present at the passage of the Chenab, and in the battles of Badolapore, Chillianwallah, and Goojerat, and with the field force in pursuit of the enemy to the Khyber Pass in March 1849 (Medal and two Clasps). 4 Major Catty served throughout the Kafir war of 1850-53 (Medal): acted as Field Adjutant to the Infantry at the commencement of hostilities in the engagement in the Boomah Pass, and on the following day when incapacitated by wounds, was several times nearly taken prisoner. Present at Fort White when that post was stormed by a large force of the enemy, who were repulsed by the small garrison under Major Mansergh. In May 1851 he was appointed Commandant of an irregular corps of Europeans, designated "Catty's Rifles," and during thirteen months of the most active period of operations this corps did good and gallant service, being engaged in nearly every patrol of the 2nd Division, the same being frequently acknowledged in General Orders, and the various reports of Commanders of Divisions. On the disbandment of "Catty's Rifles," he rejoined his Regt. (the 6th), and proceeded with the expedition against the paramount chief Kreli, and on his return to head-quarters was appointed to the command of Fort Grey, which he held till the cessation of hostilities, during which period, besides rendering the post perfectly defensible, waggons and cattle, which were on three occasions taken by the enemy and driven off, were recaptured by the garrison under Capt. Catty. Was twice severely wounded by musket balls in the Boomah Pass.

By the conduct of the detachment 83rd Regt. the lives of 136 European women and children were saved. Served in medical charge of the 83rd at the siege, assault and capture of Kotah, action of Sanganeer, battle of Bunass, and night attack on the enemy's camp at Seekur (Medal).

[Continuation of Notes to 47th Foot.]

1 Sir James Shaw Kennedy served with the 43rd Light Infantry at the siege of Copenhagen and battle of Kioge in 1807. In 1809 with the Corps of Sir David Baird from Corunna to Sahagun, and in the retreat under Sir John Moore. In 1809 with the Light Division in the march from Lisbon to Talavera, where he became Adjutant of the 43rd. Served as Aide-de-Camp to General Robert Craufurd during 1809 and 1810, and was present in the numerous affairs that took place between the Coa and Ageda, and severely wounded at the action of Almeida. Served at the siege of Ciudad Rodrigo, and at the assault of the Fort and of the place. Stood with General Craufurd when, in the assault, he placed himself on the crest of the glacis, where he fell mortally wounded. Was the bearer of the Duke of Wellington's summons to the Governor demanding the surrender of the place. Served with the 43rd at the siege and storming of Badajoz, during the investment of the forts of Salamanca, the advance and retreat from that place to the Douro, the action of Salamanca, and the investment of the Retiro and occupation of Madrid. Served as Aide-de-Camp to General Baron Alton on the retreat from Madrid to Salamanca, and in the affairs that took place between Salamanca and Rodrigo. Served as the only officer of the Quarter-Master General's Department to the 3rd Division of the Army, in the actions of Quatre Bras and Waterloo. Reconnoitred for the line of march of the Division on the 17th of June from Piermont and the Ligny Road, crossing the Dyle at Ways, a line of march separate from the rest of the Army, and a movement of great delicacy, being performed in open day in presence of Napoleon's advance. On the 18th of June was allowed, in presence of the Duke of Wellington, to form the Division in an order of battle new and unusual, that of oblongs in echiquier, to meet the formidable masses of Cavalry seen forming in its front, and in this formation the Division resisted repeatedly, with perfect success, attacks of Cavalry and Artillery probably as formidable as any known in military history. On the 18th was struck on the side and disabled for some time; and had one horse killed and one wounded. Commanded at Calais, during the three years of the Army of Occupation, the establishment formed there to keep up the communication between the Army and England. Served nine years as Assistant Adjutant General at Manchester, during periods of disturbance, and generally in command. Organized the Constabulary Force of Ireland. After attaining the rank of Major General, was named by the Duke of Wellington to several very important commands. Has received the War Medal with three Clasps.

General Craigie served with the 2nd Battalion 52nd Light Infantry the campaign of 1813-14 in Holland under Lord Lynedoch, including both attacks on the fortified village of Mervem—in the latter of which he led the advance party of Major Gen. Sir Herbert Taylor's Brigade. In May 1841 he embarked at Calcutta in command of the 55th Regiment for China (Medal), and served with the Expeditionary Force under Lord Gough till the end of the War, and was senior Field Officer serving with the force in the field and consequently second in command from the period of its sailing from Hong Kong in August and during the whole of the active operations which took place during the following five months. He commanded a Brigade or Column of attack at the assault and capture of the fortified cities of Amoy, Chusan (2nd capture)—on which occasion it happened that the whole of the engagement devolved upon his Brigade—and Chinhai. Subsequently, when the Head Quarters of the force proceeded to the Yang-tze Keang, he was appointed by Lord Gough to the responsible command of the Island of Chusan, which he held for eight months until the return of the Force after the treaty of peace had been signed at Nankin. For his conduct on the above occasions (as stated in Lord Gough's despatches) he was promoted to the rank of Colonel and appointed an Aide de Camp to the Queen and a Companion of the Bath.

[Returned from Corfu, 20 Sept. 1857. Embarked for India, Dec. 1857.]

1 Lt. General Mansel served in the Mediterranean, the Peninsula, and St. Helena, and was very severely wounded at Toulouse, for which battle he has the War Medal with one Clasp. He subsequently served on the Staff in Ireland, latterly at the Head of the Quarter Master General's Department and in command of the Southern District. He afterwards commanded the S.E. Division of England. While on the Staff in Ireland, he rendered important services to the Government, which were acknowledged by the highest civil and military authorities, especially during the rebellion of 1848, being specially employed amongst other duties in transferring State prisoners from the jails to the ships for conveyance to the penal settlements, in the presence of a large insurgent mob, when he acted in a double capacity as commanding the large Military force employed and as a Civil Magistrate. General Mansel was the Originator of the Military Prison system, in reference to which the following lines are extracted from the report of Earl Cathcart's Committee:—"We have great satisfaction in stating that it is to the extraordinary exertions, to the zeal, devotedness and integrity of that most valuable and excellent Officer, Colonel Mansel, that the Service and the Government are indebted for the maintenance and establishment of a system of discipline with means which were wholly inadequate for effecting that which has been so successfully accomplished. It is quite apparent that without Colonel Mansel's personal superintendence, and the time and trouble he has, for five years, gratuitously devoted to the important object, it would have been impossible to have succeeded."

1st. What is his age? Whether on full or half-pay? Whether serving abroad or at home?

2nd. Has he completed fifteen years' service on full pay, and in what corps?

Colonel FitzGibbon served with the 49th Regt. at the landing at the Helder in 1799. Was on board the "Monarch" during the battle of Copenhagen in 1801 (Medal). Served in Canada throughout the American war of 1812-14; on the 24th June by a successful ruse de guerre, having only 46 men, and aided by a body of Indians, he captured upwards of 500 American troops, including 50 cavalry, with two field pieces; for this service he was promoted to a Company. In 1837, being then on half pay in Upper Canada, he anticipated the rebellion in that province and took hurried but successful measures to defend the entry of Toronto, and after three days on the defensive he sallied forth at the head of the armed citizens, attacked and entirely routed the Rebels; for this service the Provincial Parliament granted him £1000.

Inspectors General.

1 Dr. Borland entered the Army in 1792, as Surgeon's Mate of the 42nd Regt., from which he was promoted to the Staff the following year, and served two campaigns in Flanders, the Duke of York. From 1795 to 1798 he served as Staff Surgeon in St. Domingo, returning in the Island until evacuated by the British Troops. In 1799 he served the campaign in Holland. From 1810 to 1816 he was employed at the head of the Medical Department in the Mediterranean, and he accompanied to Naples the troops which, under General M'E, assisted the Austrians in expelling Murat; and he was also present with a division of the troops which proceeded from Genoa to Marseilles, and blockaded Toulon. During the expedition the Scheldt Dr. Borland volunteered the duty of a mission to Walcheren at the head of a mission appointed to enquire into the nature of the alarming malady prevailing among the troops. Their report was approved by Government and ordered by a vote of the House of Commons to be printed and circulated. He is a Knight of St. Maurice and Lazare.

2 Doctor Fergusson served in the American War.

3 Doctor Forrest served in the expedition against the Rajah of Kolapore in 1827. He was in the expedition against the Insurgent Boers beyond the Orange River, South Africa, in 1838, and in the Kafir war of 1846 (Medal). Was in Medical charge of the 3rd Division, Eastern Army at Galipoli and Bulgaria, and accompanied the expedition to the Crimea, Sept. 1854; was present at the affair of Balaklava, capture of Balaklava, battles of Inkerman, and siege of Sebastopol; and was noticed in Lord Raglan's despatch after the battle of the Crimea, "for his able exertions as deserving to be most honourably mentioned" (Medal, three Clasps, CB., 4th Class of the Medjidie, Turkish Medal, and Honorary Physician to the Queen).

4 Mr. Franklin served in the Peninsula from Sept. 1808 to the end of the war, including the battles of Vittoria, Pampeluna, Pyrenees, Nivelle, Orthes, and Toulouse, and also the battle of Badajoz, for which he has received the War Medal with six Clasps. Served also in the American War, including the battle of Plattsburgh. After the operations of a quarter of a century, the Directors invite, with great confidence, the attention of the public to the marked success which has attended this Society, and to the strong claims it possesses to the confidence and support of all classes desirous of effecting Assurances on Lives. Combining the advantages of a Mutual and Proprietary Company, and without attempting a rash competition with other offices, it has pursued a steady, progressive course, affording all the benefits which, consistently with security to Assurers and Assured, can possibly be given.

Upwards of £1,173,535 have been already paid in claims and bonuses.

The Tables of Rates for residents in Europe have been prepared upon the most approved principles, to ensure moderation and security.

Assurances can be effected with or without Participation in Profits; on ascending or descending scales; and for a limited number of payments.

The Society advance money on mortgage; purchase reversions and life interests; and grant loans on such securities and on deposit of their Policies.

An Annual Division of one-fifth of the profits is made, 75 per cent. of which is appropriated to the Policy-holders, and 25 per cent. to the shareholders; the remaining four-fifths are set apart towards the average of succeeding years. The Assured can apply their profits to the immediate reduction of their premiums, or as a bonus to the sum assured.

The last Annual Reduction of Premium amounted to 45 per cent.; so that a person being assured for £1,000 at the age of 30 is now paying £13 8s. 7d., instead of £24 8s. 4d.

All Medical Fees and Stamps are paid by the Society.

INDIAN BRANCH.

The UNIVERSAL was the first Assurance Society that secured to residents in India fixed rates and the advantages enjoyed by those in Great Britain.

Separate tables for the Civil and Military Services were originally framed with the utmost care from the records of the India House, and valuable statistical returns accessible to this Society alone. To test their adaptation to the present time, and to ascertain whether any reduction could safely be made, they have recently undergone a minute and laborious investigation by two eminent London actuaries, whose report has established their soundness and accuracy.

The attention of persons proceeding to India, and of residents there, is requested to a peculiar and most important advantage offered by this Society, viz.—that on the return of the Assured to Europe the premiums are reduced to the English scale corresponding with the age when the Assurance was effected, WITHOUT REFERENCE TO THE STATE OF HEALTH ON RETURN.

Tables of Rates and all further information will be furnished at the Office in London, and by the Agents in India:—

Messrs. BRADDON and Co., Calcutta.

Messrs. BAINBRIDGE, BYARD, GAIR, and Co., Madras.

Messrs. LECKIE and Co., Bombay.
